- to manage the financial affairs of the College

- to ensure the security of our site and the safety of our college community through the use of CCTV systems that collect biometric information

The legal basis on which we collect and use your personal information.

Generally, the information is processed as part of our public interest task of providing education to you.

Where that information is special category personal information (i.e. sensitive information such as medical information) we will process it because there is a substantial public interest for us to do so.

We may process your personal data because it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you or in order to take steps, at your request, prior to entering into a contract. In this respect, we use your personal data for the following:

- to interact with you before you are enrolled as a student, as part of the admissions process (e.g. to send you a prospectus or answer enquiries about our courses);
- once you have enrolled, to provide you with educational service
- to deal with any concerns or feedback you may have;
- for any other purpose for which you provide us with your personal data.

We may also process your personal data because it is necessary for the performance of our tasks carried out in the public interest. In this respect, we may use your personal data for the following:

- to provide you with educational services
- to monitor and evaluate the performance and effectiveness of the College, including by training our staff or monitoring their performance;
- to promote equality and diversity throughout the College;

We may also process your personal data for our compliance with our legal obligations. In this respect, we may use your personal data for the following:

- to meet our compliance and regulatory obligations, such as compliance with safeguarding requirements;
- for the prevention and detection of crime;
- to assist with investigations (including criminal investigations) carried out by the police and other competent authorities.

We may also process your personal data where:

- we have a legitimate interest in doing so (including to protect the security of our site and our college community)
- it is necessary for medical purposes (e.g. medical diagnosis, provision of health or social care or treatment, or a contract with a health professional);
- it is necessary to protect your or another person's vital interests; or
- we have your specific or, where necessary, explicit consent to do so. Where we have obtained consent to use your personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn

How long we keep your personal information.

We hold your data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention policy. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please visit the policies section of our website: <https://www.bhasvic.ac.uk/the-college/policies>

How we share your personal information.

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about students with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
- The Department for Education (including the LRS) their privacy notices are included at the end of this document
- The student's family and representatives
- Educators and examining bodies
- Our regulator Ofsted
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Central and local government
- Health and social welfare organisations
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- UCAS

How we transfer your personal information outside Europe.

We do not store or transfer your personal data outside Europe unless you specifically ask us to do so. Where we do transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Your use of BHASVIC technology

We keep an eye on how you use the College's equipment and computers. This is because we have legal obligations to protect you, and we also have a legitimate interest in making sure you are using our computer equipment correctly and that you are not looking at any inappropriate content.

Your rights over your personal information

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- ask us what personal information about you we are holding and to have access to a copy of your personal information;
- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer dpo@bhasvic.ac.uk

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading, or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer at Data Protection Officer, 205 Dyke Road, Hove, East Sussex, BN3 6FJ, 01273 552200, dpo@bhasvic.ac.uk

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
