

Drama and Performing Arts

Higher Education at BHASVIC

In Sept 2018, 7 BHASVIC students went onto study Drama and Performing Arts degrees at 6 different universities

Many Drama & Performing Arts students choose an alternative route to study at a specialist Conservatoire such as the Guildhall School of Acting & Drama.

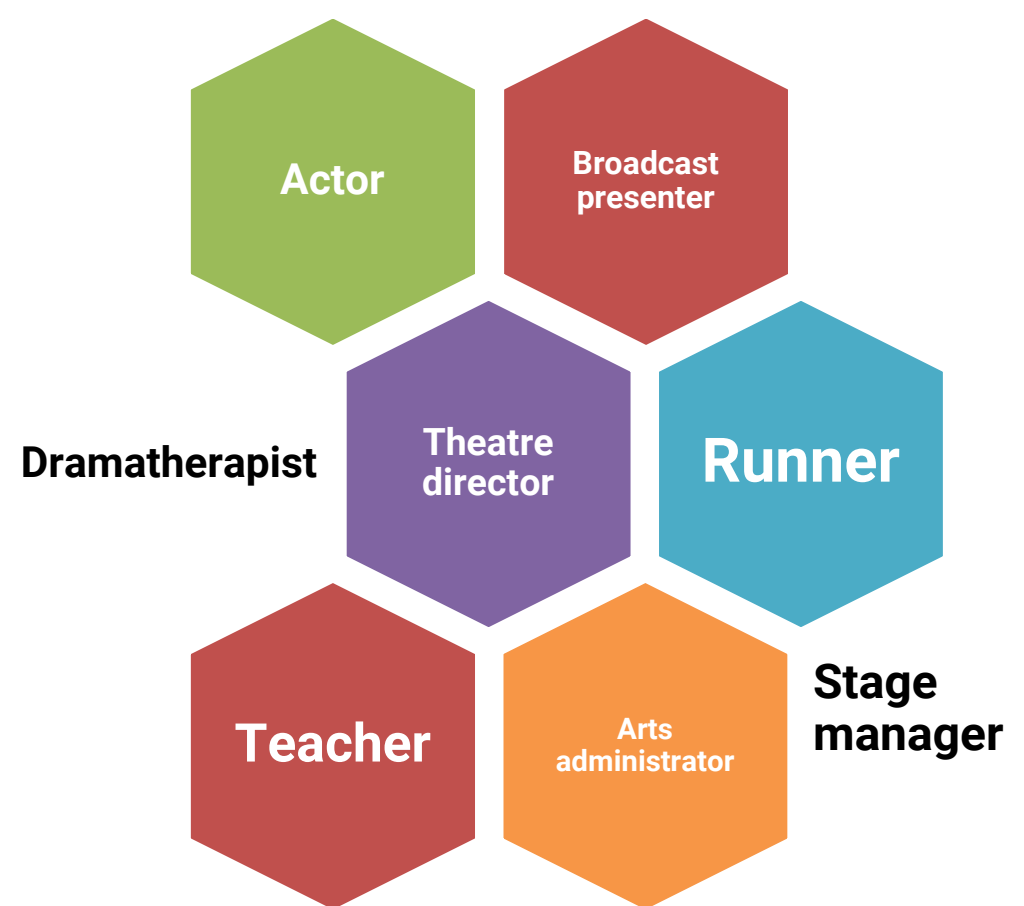

Students can study Drama through a BTEC or an A level route at BHASVIC which are equivalent qualifications.

Performance is just one of many careers that can come from studying drama. For adaptable and enterprising individuals, there are few limits to where studying this dynamic subject can lead

Jobs where a Drama degree would be useful include:

- Performer
- Theatre stage manager
- Community arts worker
- Further education teacher
- Media researcher
- Secondary school teacher
- Television floor manager
- Theatre manager

Top 10 Universities for Performing Arts

Complete University Guide 2019

Why not try a foundation degree..

Bath Spa
BCC (A level)
DMM (BTEC)

Anglia Ruskin
CCC (A level)
MMM (BTEC)

Essex
(with Foundation Year)
CDD (A level)
MMM (BTEC)

A level grades or BTEC equivalents

UEA
ABB (A level)
DDM (BTEC)

.....or degree / higher apprenticeship

Drama training
&
Apprenticeships
creativeaccess.
org.uk