

English Literature

Higher Education at BHASVIC 2019

In Sept 2019, 14 BHASVIC students studied English Literature at 11 different unis. 22 students studied combined English at 13 different unis

English remains year on year top ten subjects for University study.

Students study English Language, English Literature or a combination of both at A level.

Should I study English Literature at degree level?

Do you enjoy reading and analysing books, plays and poems and sharing your ideas with others? advertising? If so, you may be interested in studying English literature, or language, or combining the two.

Due to the nature of the course with a lot of private study and reading/writing time, English students tend to be in classrooms and lecture halls a total of 8 hours a week.

Types of Degree

- You can choose to study straight English Literature or combine to an English degree
- You can specialise in literature such as Scottish Literature (Glasgow), Classical Literature (Leeds), German Literature (Queen Marys)

Entry Requirements

- A-levels (or equivalent) usually required
- English literature / language
- Useful to have
 - History
 - Religious studies
 - French or another foreign language
 - Latin or another classical language

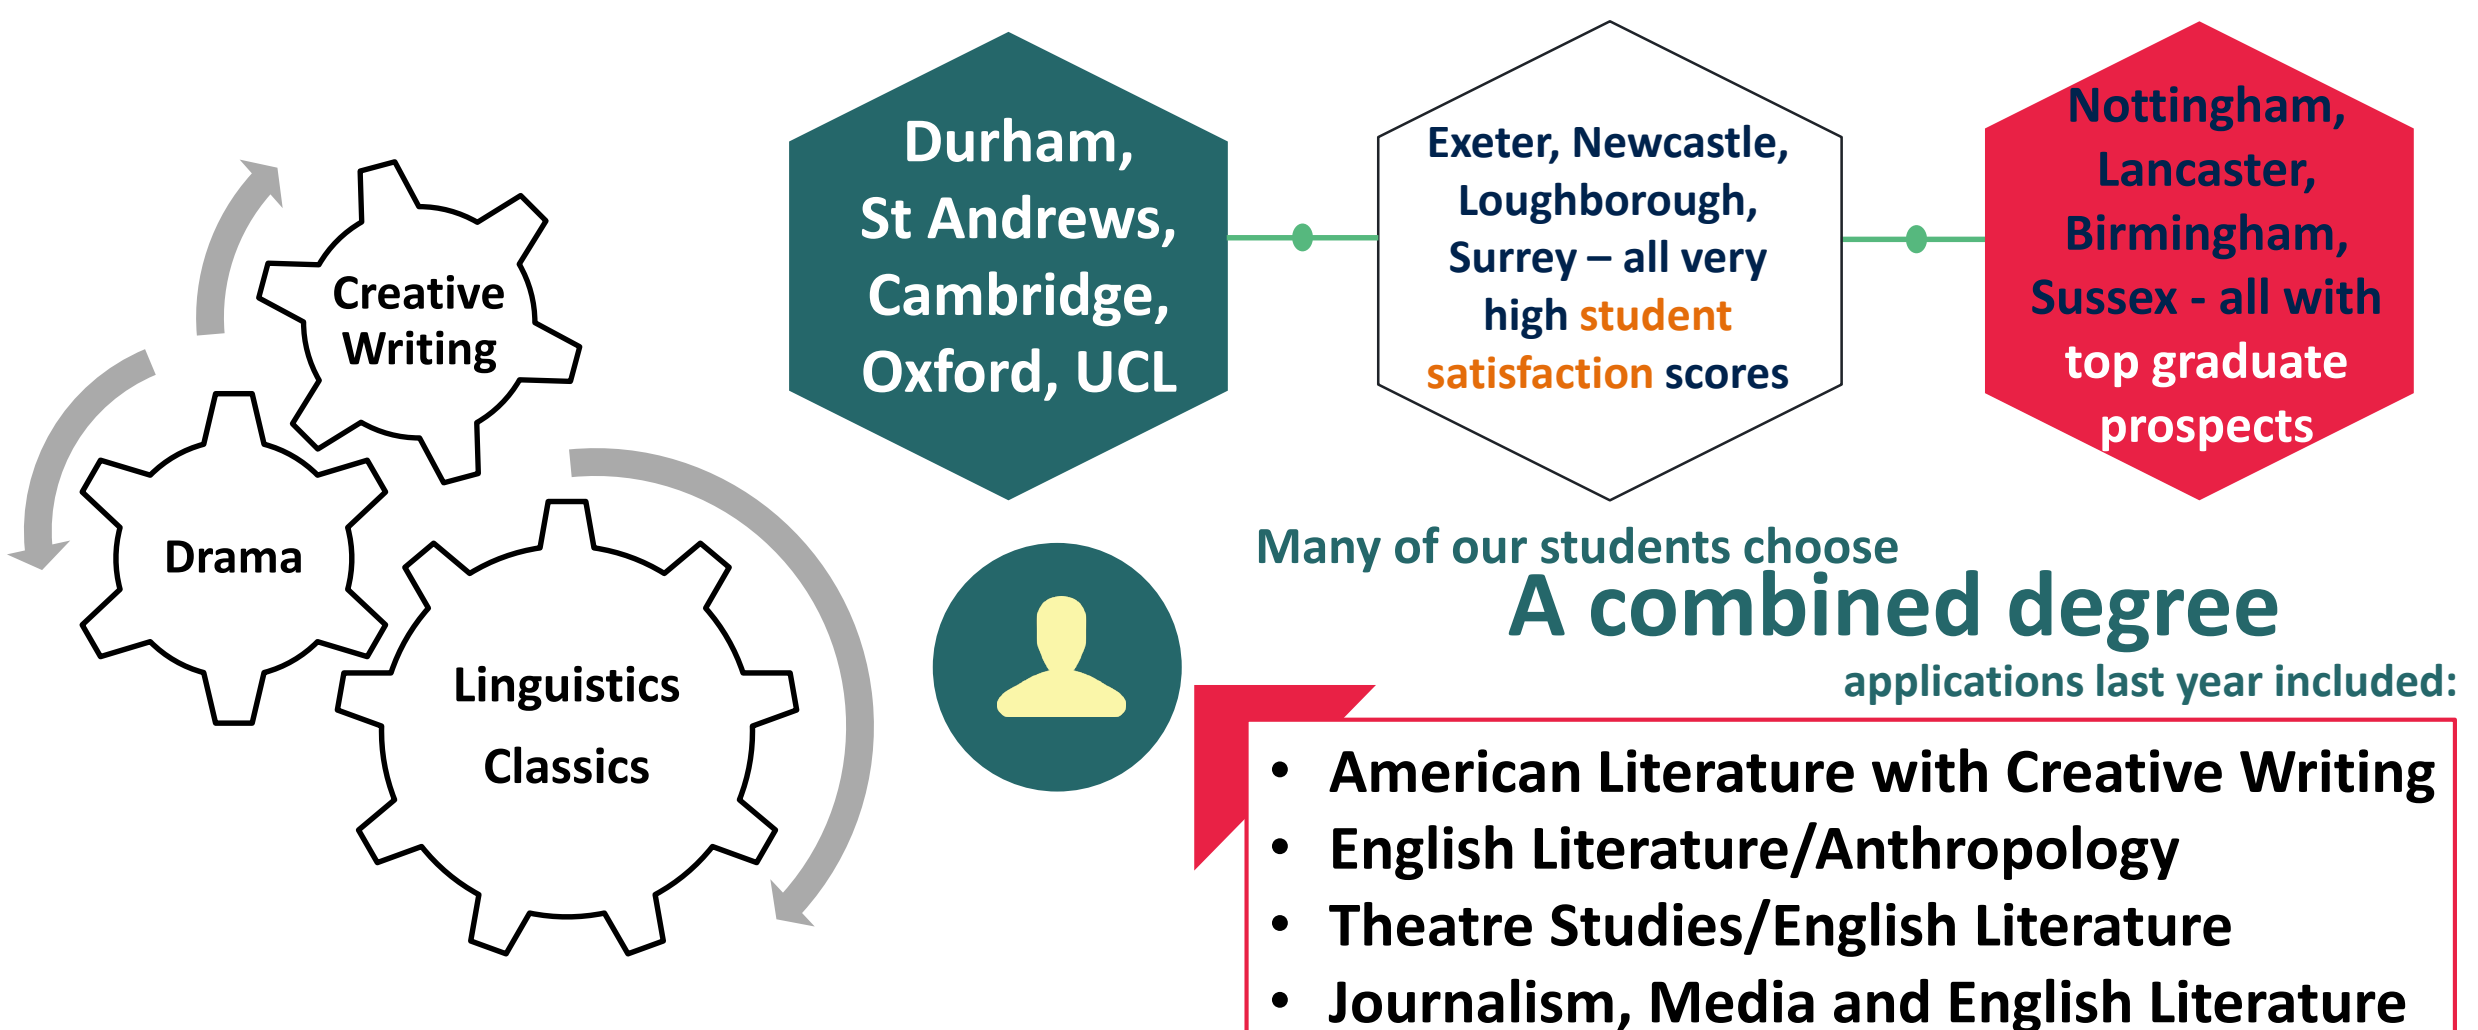

Example modules

- Explorations in literature
- Chaucer: texts, contexts, conflicts
- Shakespeare in performance
- Renaissance literature
- Modernist fiction
- Creative writing: drama
- British romanticism
- Literary and cultural theory
- Stylistics
- Aspects of modernism

Top 10 Universities for English

Complete University Guide 2020

Why not try a foundation degree..

Bristol BBC

A level grades or BTEC equivalents

Lancaster AAB

Portsmouth CCC

Kingston (foundation) DD

.....or study in English abroad

English Literature & Culture
Leiden University
Netherlands