

Fine Art

Higher Education at BHASVIC 2019

Many of our students choose to take a one year Art Foundation level 3/4 Diploma (equiv. to 2 A levels) before embarking on an arts degree

Last year 100 students took this pathway, often studying at Brighton Met City College or Northbrook.

Joining a Visual Arts tutor group in A2 to support them in their applications, this helps them explore the wide variety of arts degrees available.

Arts universities such as Falmouth, Bournemouth and Norwich specialise in Visual Arts courses. In addition, 3 students chose direct entry to History of Art degrees.

Should I study Fine Art at degree level?

Would you like the opportunity to develop your ability to express yourself creatively through drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, performance art or film?

Teaching varies between lectures, groups and one-to-one help. The course teaches many things - conceptual thinking, illustrated book, advertising and editorial work, life drawing, digital skills

Types of degree

- You can choose to study straight Fine Art or a closely related subject, for example
- Illustration
- Printmaking
- Painting & Drawing
- Environmental Art
- Sculpture
- Also available are History of Art degrees

Entry Requirements

- A-levels (or equivalent) usually required
- No Specific Requirements
- Useful to have
- Graphic Design
- Photography
- Art
- You may well need a portfolio & interview

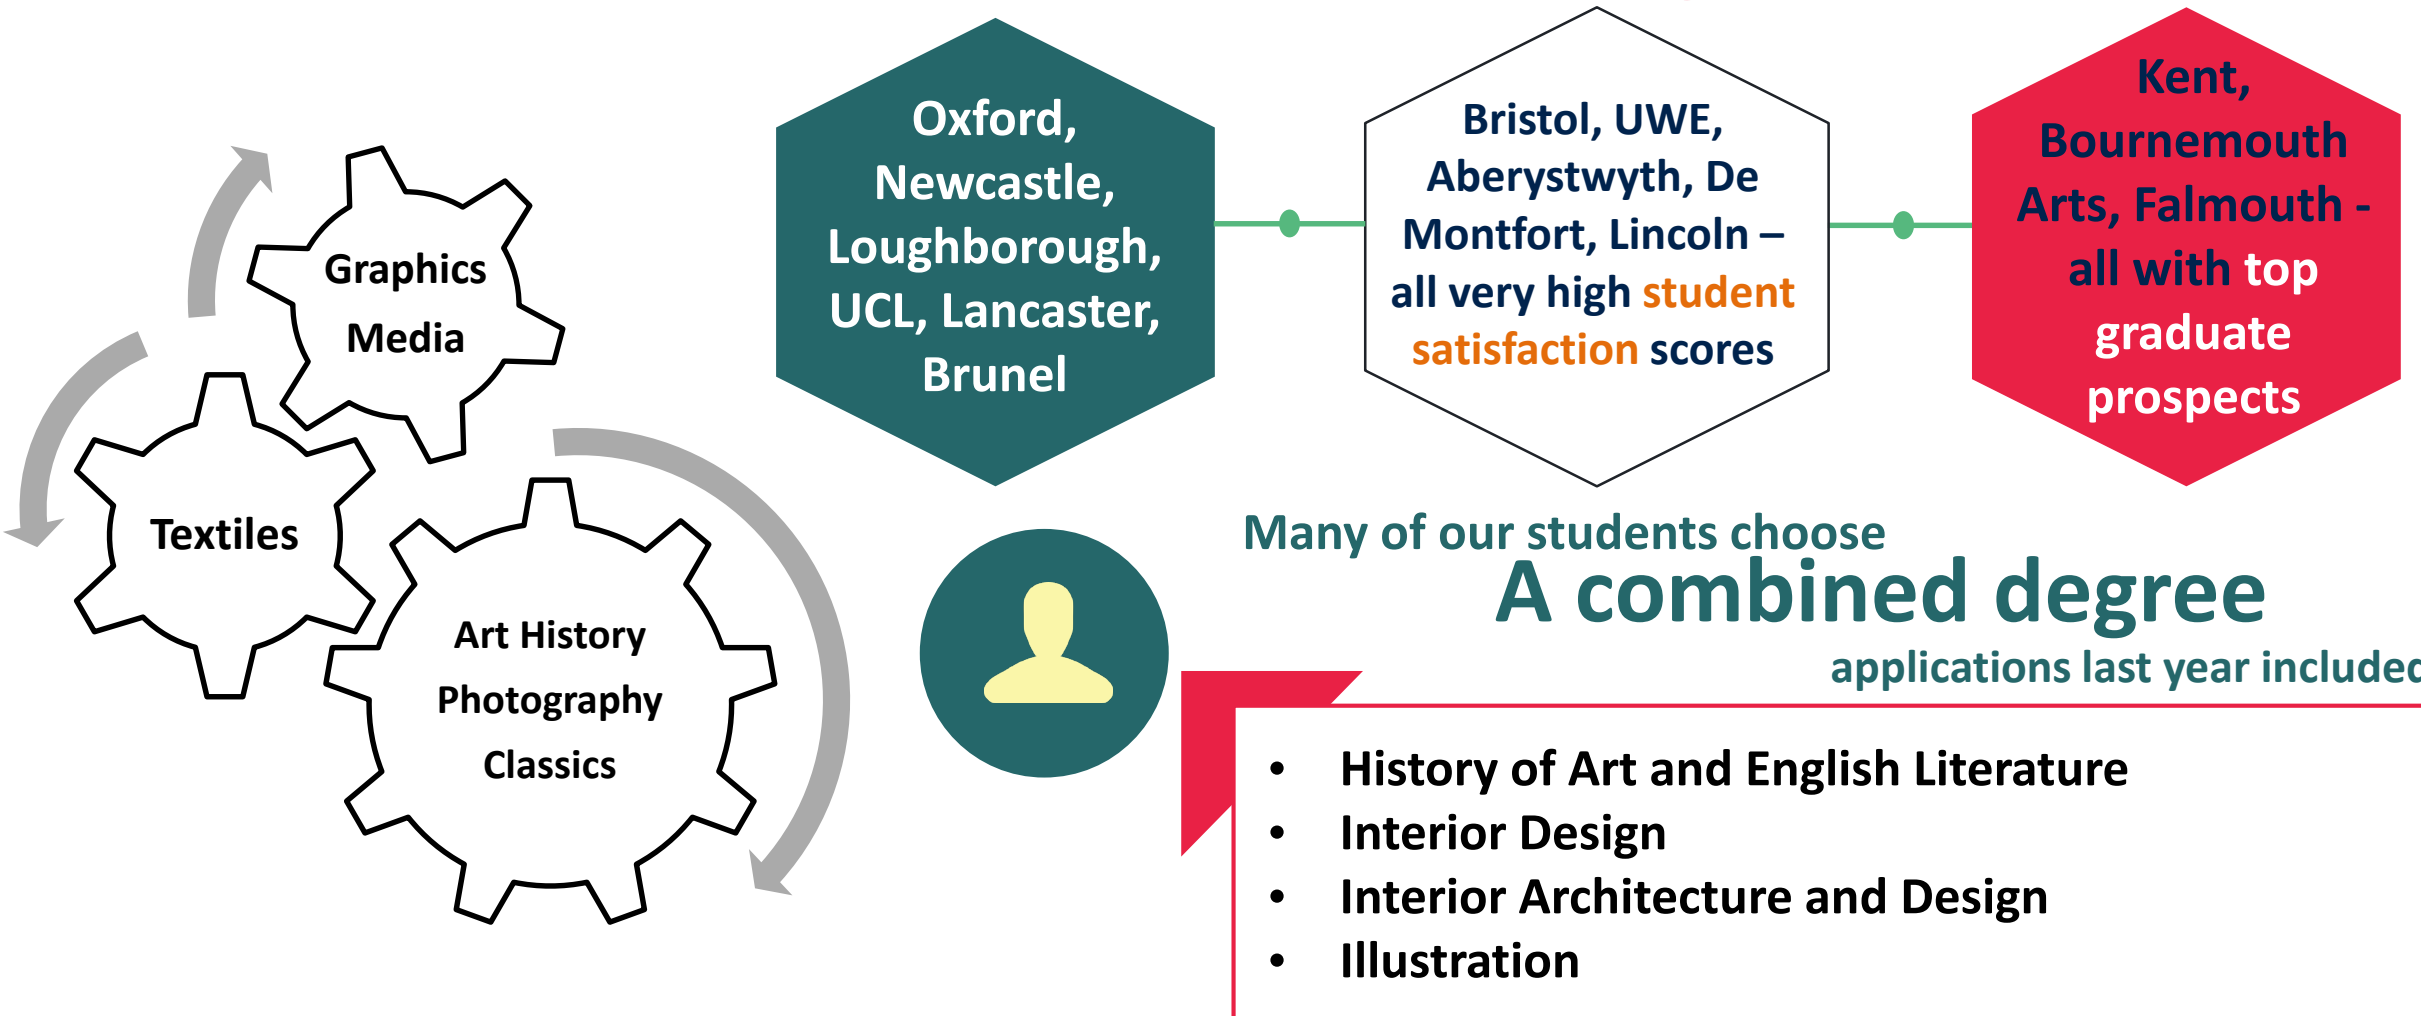

Example modules

- Exhibition and visual contextual research
- Themes and issues in contemporary art
- Understanding the visual
- Art, space and audience
- 2D art practice: painting, print, photography
- 3D art practice: sculpture, installation
- 4D art practice: film, video, performance

Top 10 Universities for Art & Design

Complete University Guide 2020

Glasgow College of Art
AAB

A level grades or BTEC equivalents

Birmingham City
DD

Norwich University of the Arts
BBB

Brighton Met
Arts Foundation
Visual Arts A level + portfolio

Why not try a foundation degree..

.....or degree / higher apprenticeship

Creative, Music and Visual Arts Apprenticeships
Futureleaders.org.uk