Higher Education at BHASVIC

In Sept 2018, 41 BHASVIC students went onto study History degrees at 27 different universities

It is regularly in the top two subjects our students go onto study at university.

Students can study A level History (Modern) or choose A level (Medieval and Early Modern).

Employers value the research, analytical, teamwork and communication skills that history students develop throughout their degree

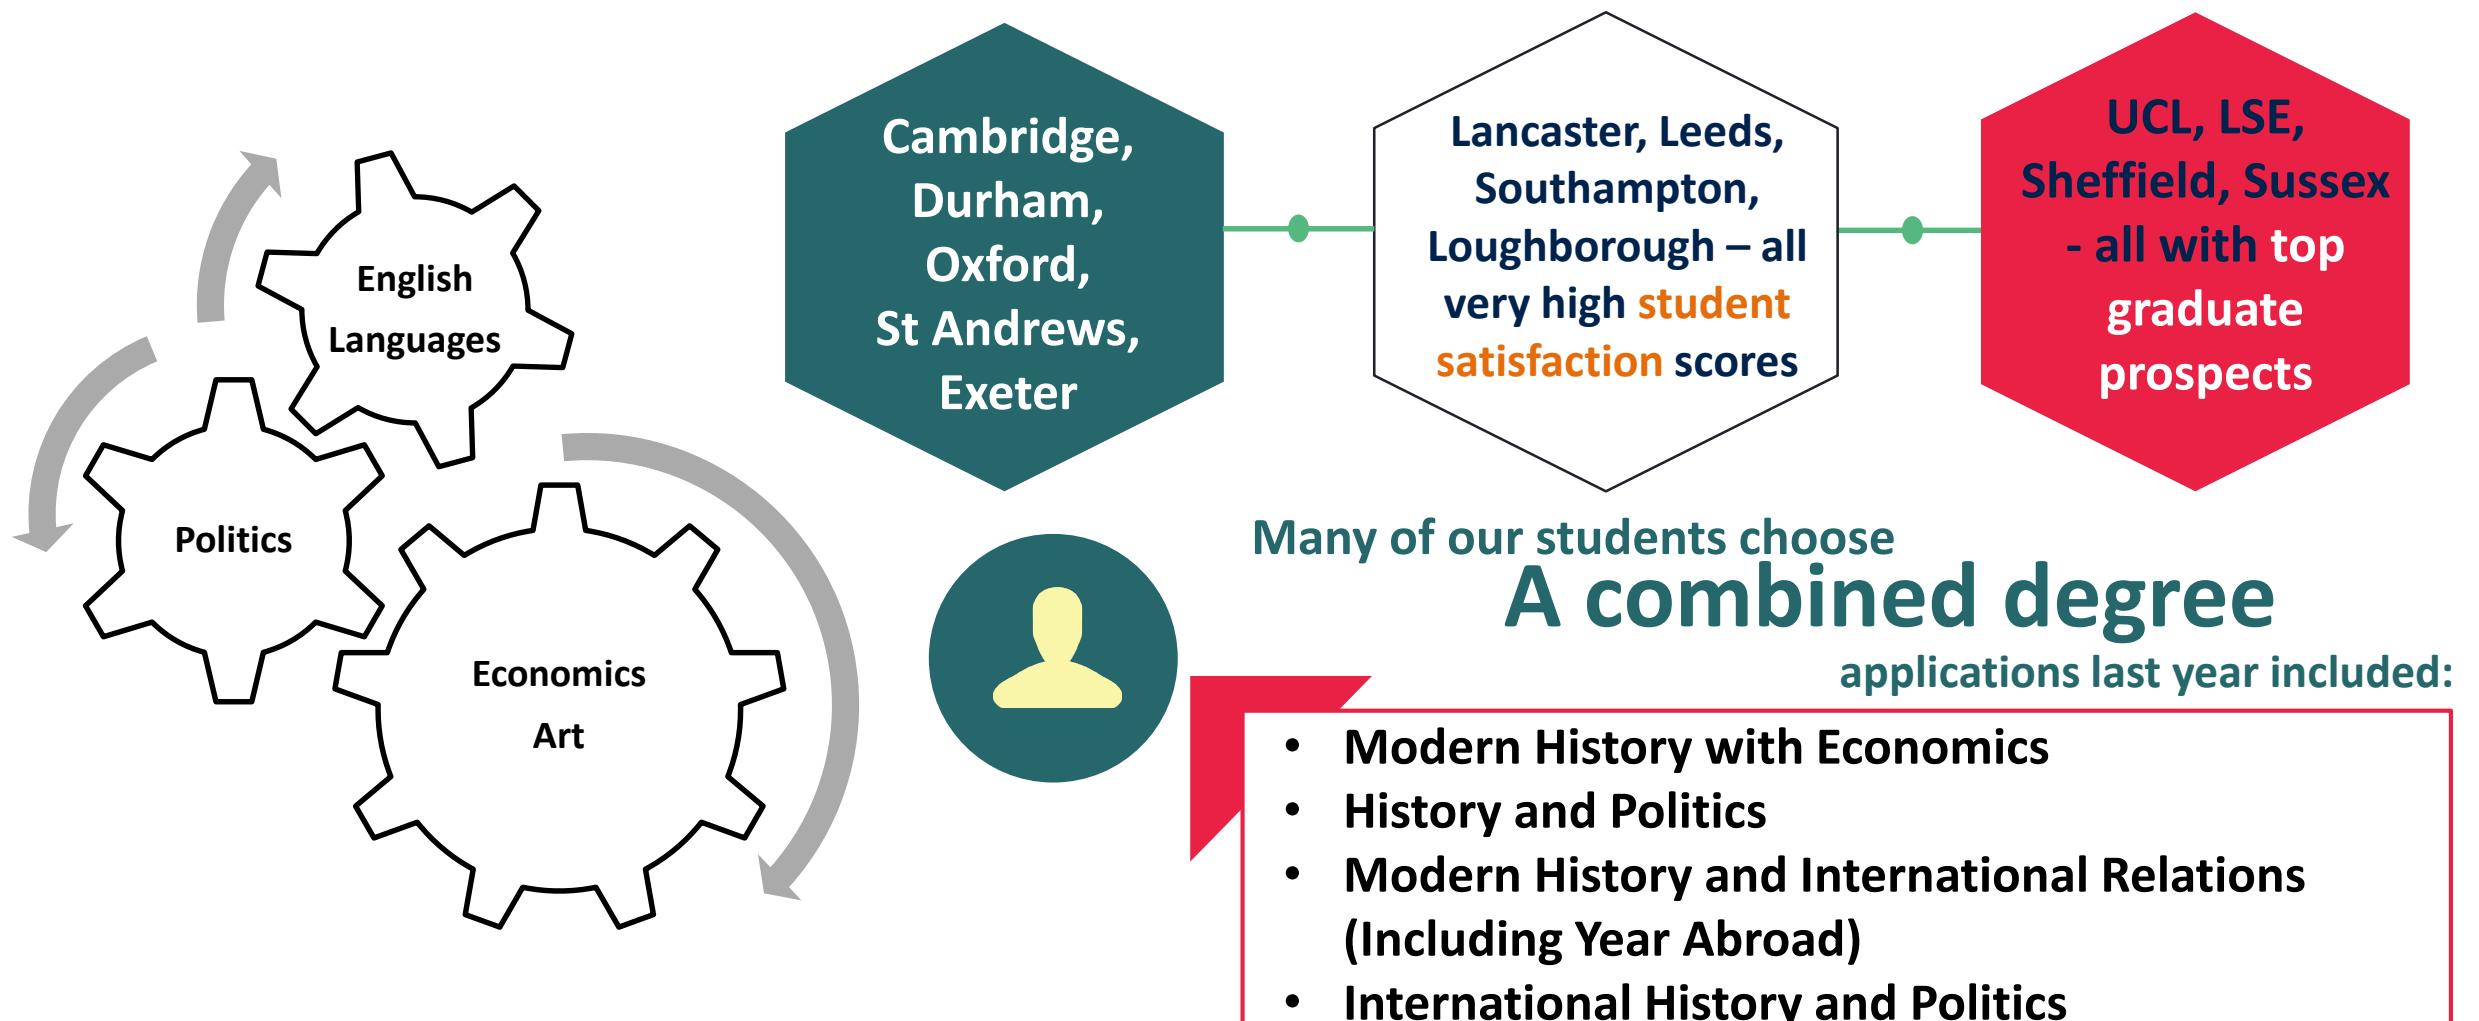

Jobs where a History degree would be useful include:

- Academic librarian
- Archaeologist
- Broadcast journalist
- Civil Service
- Editorial assistant
- Information officer
- Politician's assistant
- Web content manager
- Teacher
