

Politics

Higher Education at BHASVIC 2019

In Sept 2019, 69 BHASVIC students went onto study Politics-related degrees at 30 different universities

Politics remains year on year one of our top five subjects for University study.

It is particularly popular combined with another subject. Six BHASVIC students went onto study Human, Social, and Political Sciences at Cambridge this year.

Should I study Politics at degree level?

Politics is the study of how governments work, how public policies are made, international relations and political ideas – from democracy to human rights. and law

Classes are very much discussion-based. Wider reading is required to really come to grips with the material. The course is very dynamic and covers a broad range of social sciences.

Types of degree

- You can choose to study straight Politics but many students choose a combined degree with:
- Languages
- History
- Philosophy
- International Relations
- Business
- Economics
- International History

Entry Requirements

- A-levels (or equivalent) usually required
- No Specific Requirements
- Useful to have
- History
- Sociology
- Politics
- Philosophy
- Law

Example degree modules

- Central themes in political thought
- Modern British politics
- Capital labour and power: Britain 1707-1939
- The holocaust
- Total War in the modern era
- International politics
- Making of the modern world
- The political economy of development
- Comparing extremism in European liberal democracies

Top 10 Universities for Politics

Complete University Guide 2020

Oxford,
St Andrews,
UCL, LSE,
Cambridge

Warwick, Bristol,
Loughborough,
Aberystwyth – all
very high student
satisfaction scores

Durham, Exeter,
Sheffield, Essex -
all with top graduate prospects

Many of our students choose

A combined degree

applications last year included:

- Human, Social, and Political Sciences
- Politics and International Relations
- Asia Pacific Studies and International Relations
- Politics with Chinese
- American Studies and Politics with a Year Abroad

Why not try a foundation degree..

Leeds
AAB

A level grades
or BTEC equivalents

Goldsmiths
ABB

York
BBC

UEA
(foundation)
CCC

.....or study in English abroad

Political Science
BSc
Leiden
University,
Netherlands