

Textiles

Higher Education at BHASVIC 2019

Many of our students choose to take a one year Art Foundation level 3/4 Diploma (equiv. to 2 A levels) before embarking on an arts degree

Last year 100 students took this pathway, often studying at Brighton Met City College or Northbrook.

Joining a Visual Arts tutor group in A2 to support them in their applications, this helps them explore the wide variety of arts degrees available.

Arts universities such as Falmouth, Bournemouth and Norwich specialise in Visual Arts courses. In addition, 4 students chose direct entry to Fashion-related degrees.

Should I study Textiles or Fashion at degree level?

If you have creative ability and a wish to communicate your ideas by producing visual images or design solutions, then a degree in design may be for you

In an average week you might learn how to pattern, cut and sew; have a tutorial about your design work; present a project; research; go to a lecture for business studies & work on a group project.

Types of degree

- There are a wide variety of design related subjects
- You can study a Fashion related course or branch out in wide areas such as Costume and Stage design
- You can also combine with
  - Journalism
  - Management
  - Business

Entry Requirements

- A-levels (or equivalent) usually required
- Diploma in foundation art and design
- A Visual Art or a design-related subject
- Usually portfolio / interview

Example degree modules

- Reflection, planning and presentation
- Design process to product
- Making contact with the industry
- Design communication
- Objects and experiences
- Materials and processes
- Critical analysis
- Manufacturing technology and material culture

Top 10 Universities for Art & Design

Complete University Guide 2020

Why not try a foundation degree..

Edinburgh
BBC

A level grades
or BTEC equivalents

Cardiff
CCC

Kent
CC

Brighton
Met
Arts Foundation
1 Visual Arts A
level + portfolio

.....or degree /
higher apprenticeship

Creative, Music and Visual Arts
Apprenticeships
Futureleaders.org.uk