

SUMMER SCHOOL INFORMATION

Introduction to Summer Schools

There are numerous benefits to taking part in Summer Schools. They are usually free and include your meals, accommodation, some will cover travel costs. You will also be able to find out what University is really like!

You can develop your critical thinking and independent study skills, and you will be introduced to new subject areas which will all help to support your progression to higher education.

You'll have the opportunity to ask current students about their university experiences, and talk to academics about their subjects and research.

You will gain an insight to university life, and there are numerous academic benefits to taking part in a summer school, for example:

- find out about courses and how they are taught
- learn how to carry out university-level research
- experience a university lecture, delivered by an academic in a lecture theatre
- use facilities including, labs, teaching areas, sports facilities, library and specialist arts facilities

To view all the up to date Summer School opportunities see the Widening Participation section of the BHASVIC Website. You can do this by clicking HERE and go to the Widening Participation tab.
