

Required to start 7 January 2019

EVENING LANGUAGE TUTOR (Italian) (temporary cover)

We wish to appoint a tutor of Italian to provide urgent cover for a current member of staff who is absent. You will be required to start 7 January 2019 and we anticipate the cover will be needed until Wednesday 13 February in the first instance, with the possibility of the cover then being extended.

The successful applicant will be teaching Italian Level 1 on a Monday and Italian Level 2 on a Wednesday. The evening courses run from 6.30pm to 8.00pm.

The current salary is £25 per hour. The hourly rate includes the administrative part of the job, such as schemes of work, lesson preparation, keeping records and assessment.

The successful applicant will also be appointed to our pool of Adult Language Tutors on a permanent basis. This means you will be contacted by the College in future years should other appropriate courses become available. There is a possibility of teaching between one and four evenings per week depending on student numbers.

Due to the urgent nature of this cover, applications will be shortlisted and reviewed by the panel as soon as they are received and shortlisted applicants will be invited in to interview as soon as possible.

We reserve the right to close this vacancy as soon as we appoint a suitable candidate.

All teachers at BHASVIC automatically become members of the Teachers' Pension Scheme (TPS). The TPS is a contributory scheme administered by Teachers' Pensions on behalf of the government. As a member of the TPS you will pay between 7.4% and 9.6% of your gross salary (from 1 April 2015) and your employer pays a further 16.48% (from 1 September 2015). Once you have started your job at BHASVIC you have the option to opt out of the teachers' pension scheme. If you wish to opt out you must do so within three months of your start date in order to receive a refund of your contributions. For further information see www.teacherspensions.co.uk.

BHASVIC is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Our vetting procedures for prospective employees are in line with the guidelines provided by the Department for Children Schools and Families. Further information can be found on <http://www.education.gov.uk/childrenandyoungpeople/safeguardingchildren>

Adult Language Provision

The department offers a range of non-accredited Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish and Swedish courses, ranging from holiday courses through to advanced level.

The Head of Faculty is responsible for leading the Adult Language provision, with support from the full time Evening Language Courses Manager. The Manager oversees the operational running of the provision, including enrolments and on-course administration and ensures that satisfaction surveys are carried out. The Manager also has responsibility for liaising with students and tutors and ensures the day to day running of the provision.

There is a language laboratory which uses Sanako software which is used by the adult language students. All classrooms are equipped with Smartboard interactive whiteboards with speakers.

HOW TO APPLY

For details of how to submit your application, please visit our website
