

Course outline – 30 weeks

Language: Polish

Level: 1

Course book: Polski, Krok po Kroku by I. Stempek, A. Stelmach, S. Dawidek, A. Szymkiewicz. Polish Language School Glossa (December 2010).

ISBN: 9788393073108

Please note that in level 1 we cover Units 1-8 and then we carry on with the same book in level 2.

| Topics and vocabulary | Grammar | Communicative objectives |
|---|--|---|
| Basic expressions Introducing yourself / Saying goodbye Personal information Address Nationality – basics Classroom language | Polish Alphabet Numbers 0-29 Personal pronouns Verb to be Conjugation –m/ -sz Verbs: to be, to have, to apologize, to read, to ask, to understand | Pronunciation and intonation Introducing yourself Greeting and saying goodbye Asking simple questions Agreeing and disagreeing Asking where someone lives Asking where someone comes from |
| Classroom objects Describing people Feature of objects Colours Appearance and personality Jobs and occupation Interests | Nominative singular nouns and adjectives Present tense Demonstrative pronouns in nominative case Conjugation –ę, -isz/ -ysz Verbs: to dance, to speak, to like, to do, to learn etc Instrumental case- singular noun and adjective | Describing classroom objects Describing people Asking and telling about character Telling who you are Telling about your job Asking and describing your interests Telling your age |

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| Nationality and languages | Numbers 20 -100 Expression – how old someone is | |
| Hobbies Sport Shops and shopping Meals and Food | Conjugation – ę/ -sz/ -ysz Verbs: to want, to write, to be able to , to work, to watch, to be bored etc. Possessive pronouns in singular nominative Accusative case – singular nouns and adjectives Numbers 100-1000 Instrumental case – plural noun and adjective Verbs : to eat, to drink, to prefer | Saying what you like doing in your free time Asking about someone leisure activities Talking about sport Telling possessions Asking about the price Doing shopping in different shops Telling about your food preferences Saying what you usually have for breakfast/ lunch/ dinner |